

SOCIETY

Invitations Issued

Mrs. Thomas Marshall has issued invitations to a "fete champetre," Thursday, May 18, at 4:30 p. m.

Dinner

Mrs. William J. Clifford entertained at dinner Wednesday for Mrs. Patterson and Mr. James Patterson.

St. Luke's Guild

There have been frequent announcements of the meeting of that popular organization, St. Luke's Guild, which were inadvertently made. The meeting was postponed owing to Chautauqua. The Guild will positively meet Monday, May 15 at the residence of Mrs. E. P. York when a very attractive program, arranged by Mrs. M. B. Ament, will be rendered.

Missionary Society

The following is the program of the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church with Mrs. A. A. Almy, Monday, May 15, at 3 p. m.

"Siam," by Mrs. Fred Sherman; Reading: "Do Something," Mrs. J. H. Lester; "Gala Days in Cuba," Mrs. George D. Robinson; "Porto Rico and Siam," Mrs. J. G. Moir; Clippings, by the members. Mrs. V. S. Hillis will have charge of the devotionals. She will also render a solo.

Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Marshall entertained last Thursday at the Harvey House with a beautiful dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rogers. The tables were decorated with clusters of roses and carnations veiled with delicate ferns. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Pollard, Major and Mrs. James Waddill, Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Moir, and Mrs. R. C. Hoff.

Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. Amos W. Pollard entertained charmingly last Tuesday evening for Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rogers before their departure for home Saturday. The guests for bridge twenty-eight in number. Miss Elizabeth Waddill made the highest score for the ladies and Morris Nordhaus for the men. After the game a dainty collation of delicious sandwiches, cakes, bonbons, olives and ices were served.

We Are Twelve Club

The exclusive We Are Twelve Club met Thursday with Mrs. J. A. Mahoney. There were present as guests of Mrs. Mahoney, besides the club members, Mrs. Peyton, Mrs. Shepherd, Mrs. York and Mrs. Thurmond. At the conclusion of the game, Mrs. Mahoney gracefully assisted by Miss Mahoney and Miss Theresa Clark served dainty refreshments, and both members and guests enjoyed a delightful afternoon.

M. H. Club, Mondale

The M. H. Club met with Mrs. Eliza Ousterhaut and Miss Mary last Wednesday. A large number attended. The annual election of officers was held, Mrs. C. D. Grabert is the new president; vice-presidents, Mrs. F. E. Kimball and Mrs. R. W. Yeargin and secretary, Miss Mary Ousterhaut. There was only one change made in the election of trustees for the ensuing year. Mrs. Frank Cox is the new trustee. The secretary's annual report for the past year shows a great many civic improvements. During the social hour dainty refreshments were served. The club will hold its next meeting May 17, with Mrs. Pringle.

Heart Party

The beautiful heart party of Mrs. Frank Nordhaus, Mrs. Frank Samuels, and Mrs. C. J. Scott Tuesday afternoon claimed the attention of the smart world of society folks, and was unanimously conceded one of the most delightful affairs of the spring season. The Nordhaus home was elaborately decorated with a lavish display of luxurious roses, while dainty apple blossoms of the spring entwined themselves in graceful garlands about electroliers and framed themselves in the doorways and along the curtains. An array of lovely carnations in pink and white, the color scheme of the afternoon, adorned the tables and cabinets and everywhere the radiant spirit of spring reflected her glowing countenance in the wealth of flowers that adorned the home. There were nine tables of hearts. Mrs. J. B. Taylor made the highest score and received an exquisite basket of pink and white sweet peas. At the conclusion of the game, a trio of our "sweetheart buds," Misses Jessie Guiney, Isabelle Sevier and Beatrice Hillis, in the daintiest of dainty summer frocks, served a de-

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

J. M. Garr of Faywood was in the city this week.

J. O. Harris left the city Tuesday for Denver, Colo.

Subscriptions continue to roll into the Graphic office.

General Pershing is prepared for anything that comes.

Nels Elfuson is sure some artist with the advertising brush.

Trainmaster Murphy of Lordsburg was in Deming Saturday.

H. G. Bush has returned from a business trip to California.

Constable Hulsey of Columbus returned to his home Saturday.

A big shipment of new job type will soon be in the Graphic's cases.

John McCabe of El Paso stopped over in the city between trains Saturday.

Mrs. George W. Morsehead spent Monday in El Paso on a visit to her friends.

J. S. Vaught spent Saturday in Silver City where he attended to legal business.

Judge Terrel of Silver City was a Deming visitor the later part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McVannan and Miss Ada Coleman spent Chautauqua week in the city.

M. M. Breit of the Mergenthaler company looked over the machines in Deming this week.

W. H. Rue has a display ad in this issue that should interest all asthma or hay fever folks.

Mrs. Wm. A. McMillan, of Albuquerque, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wood.

Mrs. M. B. Ament and P. A. Burdick leave at an early date for an extended eastern tour.

Carnations for Mothers' Day and Cape Jassimines for Decoration Day. See Mrs. B. A. Knowles.

Bill Collins, like the good patriot that he is, came up from Columbus to don his National Guard uniform.

O. R. Bilbro of Hurley has been greeting his many friends here for several days, driving over in his new Dodge.

J. M. Sully, general manager of the Chino Copper Company at Santa Rita, was a visitor in Deming last Friday.

Give your best support to the local creamery, it's a big asset to the town and the whole surrounding country in general.

The Graphic is grateful for the invitation to be present at the commencement at the Silver City Normal next week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Mahoney motored down to their mining property in the Tres Hermanas district Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Young Bounds returned to her home near Separ after spending several days in Deming attending the Chautauqua.

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Montenyhol passed through Deming Saturday, en route to Lordsburg. Both are looking real happy.

Delicious luncheon. On each table was placed an exquisite basket of pink and white sweet peas and the color scheme was carried out in the menu. There was delightful music during the collation and the ladies who enjoyed the delightful afternoon were:

Mesdames A. W. Pollard, J. H. Rogers, J. G. Moir, M. B. Ament, L. O. Tucker, M. Nordhaus, M. E. Hudson, W. C. Rawson, H. O. Reams, E. H. Bickford, W. E. Holt, M. J. Moran, Fred Sherman, H. G. Bush, Frank Thurmond, Mayme Williams, E. P. York, Henry Hall, Miss Katherine Wamel, Miss Elizabeth Waddill, Mesdames J. Tidmore, H. Meyer, J. B. Taylor, Ralph Grayson, Frank DeLaunay, G. H. Young, Seaman Field, Carl Peugh, Jas. Kerr, Thos. Green Upton, M. B. Peyton, Sam Watkins, J. C. Clements, R. C. Spencer, R. C. Hoffman, John S. Williams and S. D. Swope.

A. H. Snyder dropped in from California, yesterday to leave a lot of smiles with his numerous friends here. Always glad to see Snyder.

Misses Lucile Ward, Mary Helen Atkins and Master Henry Ward motored to Columbus Sunday as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Nesch.

E. B. Gemoets, who has temporarily residing in El Paso, will conduct a bakery and restaurant at Myndus as soon as he has proved up on his land near that place.

Judge J. D. Richardson of Douglas, Arizona, arrived in Deming Saturday evening and left Monday for Silver City accompanied by attorney R. F. Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. P. E. Nesch, accompanied by Miss May Clifford and Messrs. J. Keely and A. O. Snyder, motored to Columbus Sunday and spent a most enjoyable day.

Mrs. Sadie Patterson and Mr. James Patterson motored up from El Paso Tuesday and registered at the Park Hotel. They are en route to their ranch at Cold Hill, Grant county.

Wm. Casler thinks there is some wealth in the Tres Hermanas hills. A piece of gold ore assayed about $24,000 a ton. This is indicative of what the future has in store for those who dig.

Jefferson Livingston's famous race horse, "Iron Mask," is dead. It will be remembered that Mr. Livingston was the lavish host of Editor Vallandigham when the great horse was at Junrez some time ago.

Grover brothers drove in from Cook's Peak in their new automobile, this week. John says they have three cars of ore that have not been reported by the smelter. Some doings around Cook's Peak, the boys say.

S. A. Jaeger, has been here for the past week, returning from Cleveland, Ohio. Mr. Jaeger has lived in Deming and has a host of friends here. He has been spending a few days no the Reed Watkins ranch near Gage.

The Deming Art Co., has opened a very attractive shop in the Baker building on Spruce street and handle everything in the line of moldings, sheet pictures, frames of all kinds. Everything is first class and at very reasonable prices.

L. A. Thompson spent last week in El Paso and is now in Albuquerque after making a brief stay with his family here. Mr. Thompson is connected with Krakauer, Zork and Moye hardware establishment of El Paso. He will go on the road in the machinery line.

Arthur C. and Henry Raithe returned from Long Beach, Sunday night, where they had been to attend the funeral of their sister, Mrs. James E. Irvine. Mrs. Margaret Raithe will remain at Long Beach for some time. The boys report business pretty lively on the coast.

E. B. Garcia, a young Spanish attorney, formerly of Deming, has arrived in the city and will establish an office and practice law here. With his family, he has taken up his residence at 403 north Fifth street.—Albuquerque Morning Journal.

J. A. Stump, W. J. Berry, Bud Parry, Charles Schoepf, and Dr. Barbee, of Deming were visitors to Columbus Thursday evening. Stump and Berry are candidates for county offices and the other men were meet-the voters and boosting for their respective candidates.—Courier

C. E. Baughman, representing the Fullis Brush Company of Hartford, Conn., visited Deming en route from Los Angeles, Tuesday. Mr. Baughman is touring the continent and took the western route so as to visit Columbus, and the two great dams, the Roosevelt and Elephant Butte dams.

F. A. Bush, editor of the Silver City Enterprise, was in Deming Friday night. Mr. Bush is installing a new linotype in his shop. All the Deming and Silver City papers are now equipped with modern type setting machines. Faris V. Bush, editor of the Lordsburg Liberal, was with his uncle.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Cotton, Miss Mary Ann and Miss Jean Cotton arrived here yesterday from Deming. They will go to Gallup with Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Cotton for a visit, leaving here tomorrow. Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Cotton came here yesterday from Gallup with the automobile excursion.—Albuquerque Morning Journal.

The "Villas" of Business

are being killed off by their own methods. Their raids on public confidence have met with defeat—they will not be tolerated longer.

The merchant who tries to "put over" disreputable merchandise is a "Villa" of business; and a punitive expedition in the way of an unreliable reputation is sure to crush him.

Ours is a store of honesty and action. By action we mean that if any purchase, large or small, is not absolutely right we stand ready to make it so, not verbally, but by exchanging it or refunding your money.

We can afford to do business on such a broad-guage policy, because we represent manufacturers whose products have attained national prestige for quality and dependability. In Spring Suits we are proud to offer you

Kuppenheimer Clothes

You will be sure to find a model that will radiate your personality, made up in a fabric and a pattern that will mean all around satisfaction.

$20 to $40

NORDHAUS' "DEMINGS GREATEST STORE"